MAN SENTENCED FOR THEFT OF MAIL

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – Junior Nanny, age 23, formerly of 36 Farmington Road, Rochester, NH, was sentenced in U.S. District Court in Concord to two years probation for offenses related to theft of U.S. Mail. Nanny pled guilty in January of this year to a two count information charging him with theft or receipt of stolen mail matter and obstruction of correspondence.

In February, 2005, Nanny, reported an act of vandalism he said was committed by an ex-girlfriend. When the ex-girlfriend was questioned by Rochester, N.H. police about Nanny's allegation, the girlfriend stated that Nanny was stealing other people's mail. A search warrant was obtained and executed, resulting in the discovery and seizure of other people's mail in Nanny's possession. Nanny pleaded guilty to knowingly and unlawfully taking the mail and obstructing correspondence.

U. S. Attorney Colantuono commended the Rochester, New Hampshire Police Department and the U. S. Postal Inspection Service for what he termed the "exceptionally diligent and efficient" handling of the investigation.

The apprehension and prosecution of Nanny were the result of an investigation brought to, and then coordinated through, the Identity Theft and Fraud Working Group organized in the U.S. Attorney's Office, which brings together both federal and state law enforcement agencies to combat identity theft and fraud.

Nanny was sentenced by U.S. District Chief Judge Steven J. McAuliffe. Assistant U. S. Attorney Alfred Rubega prosecuted this case.
